The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. A. Miller was the scene of one of the most delightful social events of the season on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Miller gave a reception to her many lady friends from two to five, in honor of her newly-made niece, Mrs. Arthur Smedley Best. The home was beautifully decorated and holly and mistletoe was in evidence everywhere. The guests were received at the front door by Miss Allie Hart amid the inspiring strains of low soft music by a well-appointed orchestra, and were ushered into the spacious parlors by Mrs. Mattie Butler Hawes. In the receiving line were Mesdames Jos. A. Miller, Arthur Simley Best, Isaac Dodd Best, Robert A. Bissitt, and J. A. Byers. After mingling for a time socially all were regaled with delicious punch served by Miss Virginia Hutchcraft. They then repaired to the dining room where a most delightful lunch was served in buffet style. The scene culminated in the drawing room, where the most delicate chocolate was dispensed by Miss Mattie Christian Butler. The occasion was an enjoyable one and one and all had a pleasant time. Among those present from a distance were Miss Pattie Hunter, Washington; Mrs. R. A. Bissitt, Miss Louise Best, Maysville; Mrs. H. M. Stitt, Paris.

The new town council, with Mayor Levy Trotter at its head, convened Tuesday evening for the first time. The council chamber was well filled with spectators, anxious to know who the next clerk, treasurer and marshal were to be. Mayor Trotter called the meeting to order. After some preliminary business the election of officers was entered into. W. D. Waite placed in nomination the name of Jos. Williams of Paris, for marshal, and W. A. Butler presented the petition of Leonard Howard, the present incumbent. Mr. Williams was elected by a vote of 5 to 1. For clerk C. E. Bryan and Peale Collier were named, Mr. Bryan winning by 4 to 2. Everett Thomasson was elected city treasurer over E. M. Ingels by 4 to 2. T. C. McClellan was granted the privilege of running the street sprinkler next summer; Squire E. P. Thomasson was granted permission to hold his cours in the city hall. The marshal's salary was fixed at $50 per month, and he is to receive no per cent. on fines or arrests. The tax schedule was not changed and will remain at fifty cents on the one hundred dollars. Mayor Trotter recommended a reduction of twenty-five cents on the hundred. The first Monday night in each month was set apart as the regular meeting night. Financially the town is in good condition. When the saloon licenses are all collected there will be something more than nineteen hundred dollars in the treasury. Mayor Trotter has promised electric lights within the year. The council adjourned to meet in special session next Monday night.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the care of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Iowa, but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver, or stomach." Guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist. Price 50c.

THERE should by all means be a Senate Committee on "Religion and Promises," and Senator Charles B. Ecton should be made Chairman. Not that he knows anything about either, but the investigations entered into by the committee might raise the standard of his moral character, if he has any.

THE first bill introduced in the Kentucky Legislature Tuesday was a most commendable one, and one that should go through with a unanimous vote. It provides for the restoration of the Henry Clay statue in the Lexington cemetery. This headless statue as it now stands is a disgrace to our State. The bill asks for appropriation of $15,000 for the work, and creates a commission of three without pay. It was presented by Senator Cammack, of Owen.

THE "lid" will be on tight in Paris Sunday for the first time in many years. The order has gone out from Mayor O'Brien and every one knows that when he says the Sunday law is to be enforced, settles the question. The new Mayor is being complimented on all sides by the vigorous manner in which he has started in to enforce not only the Sunday law, but the other city ordinances which have been "dead letters" for so long. Mr. O'Brien will have the backing of every law-abiding citizen in the city of Paris in his undertaking. When you find an officer that appreciates the oath taken when he enters upon his duties, you will find one that will not only be an honor to himself, but an honor to the people he is serving, and we believe Mayor Jas. M. O'Brien is a man of this character.

IT has always been our idea that to "the victor belongs the spoils" was a Jacksonian Democratic principle, but the under-hand work that has been going on in this county for several weeks to deprive Judge Dundon of his appointment power would lead one to believe that Republicans were just going out of office instead of Democrats. Factional fights should cease after primaries. All vote for the Democratic winners in primaries at the regular election, and then it should be the duty of every Democrat to assist in every way to make the reign of the winners a pleasant, successful and economical term instead of trying to throw every obstacle possible in the way. We shouldn't wonder that some people will find out that Judge Dundon has more power than they imagine he has, and will also find out that he alone is County Judge of Bourbon.

THE election of Judge Paynter to the United States Senate shows to the Democratic voters of Kentucky the power of the "machine" that is now in operation at Frankfort. It notifies the people that they must take off their hats and bow low to the Beckham-Hager-Haley "machine." The power of these three gentlemen seem to be unlimited. They do not stop at anything, no matter how corrupt, to carry out their purpose. Will Kentucky Democrats stand for it? This is the question to be decided at the next State Convention. It remains to be seen whether or not this well-oiled "machine" name the State ticket or the Democratic voters. It should be put out of existence by the Democratic party, for it would not do to let the Republicans have this honor. To put Republicans in power in Kentucky would never do, we have had a short reign of Republicanism and know whereof we speak, and a change from "machine" rule to Republican rule would truly be "jumping from the frying pan into the fire." This would never do, and the Democratic voters of Kentucky should exert every energy from now until the State Convention to crush this "infernal machine" out of existence. It can be done and it is the duty of Democrats to do it.

How well did Senator Chas. B. Ecton, of this district, keep the last promise he made to our people, that he would do all in his power to secure the nomination of Senator Blackburn? He voted for every "machine" man put up from the Chairman of the caucus down the line. He voted for Blackburn after he found his vote was not needed. We have it from a leader of the Administration and Paynter forces, that Ecton was ready at any minute to cast his vote for Paynter if at any time Paynter's election depended on it. Now you have the caliber of the man that will represent you in the State Senate for four years. It will be rather amusing to watch the record this man will make. He starts off well, no telling what his finish will be. It will also be amusing to watch for the compensation. The report here is that Adjutant Gen. Percy Haley has promised to resign, and Gov. Beckham will appoint Ecton's brother-in-law, Mr. Geo. Strother, of Winchester, Adjutant General. The Senator is liable to find the promises of Haley and Beckham like his own, N. G. If a man depended on such promises to carry his point he would have about as much chance as a snow ball in hades would have in not melting.

Probably Reformed Him.

Irving Grinnell, Treasurer of the Church Temperance Society of New York, told at a temperance meeting a dramatic story.

"A woman entered a barroom," he said, "and advanced quietly to her husband, who sat drinking with three other men.

"She placed a covered dish on the table and said:

"Thinkin' ye'd be too busy to come to supper, Jack. I've fetched it to you."

"And she departed.

"The man laughed awkwardly. He invited his friends to share the meal with him. Then he removed the cover from the dish.

"The dish was empty. It contained only a slip of paper that said:

"I hope you will enjoy your supper. It is the same your wife and children have at home."

If the coal you bought elsewhere, at this time, did not give satisfaction, why not give us a trial? We have satisfied customers all over the country.

PUBLIC SALE

—OF—

Blue Grass Farm

I will sell at auction on the premises at Thomson's Station, Clark County, Ky., on the C. & O. Railway, midway between Winchester and Mt. Sterling, on Thursday, February 1, 1906,

AT 11 O'CLOCK,

a tract of land containing 266 acres, 36 poles, lying on the North side of said road, and being a portion of the once famous Harrison Thomson farm, well-known for its growth of Walnut, Sugar Tree, Poplar and Blue Ash, indication of the finest order of Blue Grass soil, and famous for its productivity of its large yield of corn, wheat, etc.

While all of it has been cleared and cultivated, much of it is of recent virgin soil. In the last twenty-five years, not more than three crops of tobacco have been grown on any part of it, and during the past twelve years, not more than two crops of corn on any portion. There is no part of it that will not produce ten barrels of corn per acre. Seventy-five acres will now produce good tobacco, and the whole can, in a little time, be made first-class tobacco land. It has one tenant house, and with two large ponds from twelve to twenty feet in depth, besides excellent springs, etc., make it one of the best watered places in the county. It is well drained and has several beautiful building sites upon the place.

Located on the railway with six passenger trains daily. Postoffice, telegraph, telephone, express office, etc., at the station adjoining and lying upon two turnpikes, seven miles each from Mt. Sterling and Winchester. Certainly makes this one of the most desirable farms in the famous Blue Grass Region of Kentucky.

TERMS.—One-fourth cash, balance in equal payments of one, two, and three years, with interest at 5 per cent. per annum on deferred payments, or purchaser can pay cash if desired.

I will probably offer at the same time a farm of 217 acres lying on the South side of the railroad and being a part of the same farm, with one tenant house and a $3,000 tobacco barn upon it, all well watered. Terms as above.

Inborn Irish Wit.

Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Pittsburgh, tells a story illustrating the inborn Irish trait for quick wit. He was preaching in a Michigan town. On Saturday the women of the congregation were busy trimming up the church. "I srolled in," says Rev. Mr. Thompson, "and Katie Martin was decorating the pulpit. I noticed some tacks strewn about on the floor, and jocularly advised, Katie to be very careful to pick up all the tacks when she was through with her work. 'You know, Katie,' I said, 'that if I should step on one of those tacks right in the middle of the sermon there is no telling what might happen.' 'Faith, ye wouldn't linger long on that point,' said Katie, without cracking a smile."

An Automatic Postoffice.

B. F. Beasley, formerly of Clintonville, this county, now of Lexington, is the designer of an automatic post office and has applied for a patent on the same. The machine is constructed of tin, lead, paper spools and brass frames, which are enclosed in a sheet-iron case. If you want a one-cent stamp you drop a copper in the slot and your stamp automatically drops out into the catch below, and so on for postal cards, stamped envelopes, wrappers, etc., whichever is desired. A device is also on the machine for making change. If this little machine passes through the test now being made by the Government it will revolutionize the postoffice service, so far as the stamp department is concerned.

Attention is directed to the only style of package.

Save Money— Save Trouble

EVERY dollar spent by the dairyman in an effort to combine the various feeds into an effective ration is money doubtlessly expended. The experimentation with Sucrene Dairy Feed was done years ago. Today it's a proved productive ration, highly palatable, richly nutritious and ready for immediate use. It's reasonable in price, too. Then consider the trouble saved—but ask us, and at the same time secure the free book—"The Mystery of Milk."

James, and Mike Murphy were the guards who accompanied the prisoners to Frankfort.

Body Found in Branch.

The dead body of James Bryant was found late Tuesday afternoon in a shallow branch on Mr. James E. Clay's farm, on Cane Ridge. The body was discovered by Miss Hill, who lives near by, and was on the way to the store. Mr. Bryant was about 25 years of age and resided near Plum. He was the son of the late Jefferson Bryant, and inherited 500 acres of land from his father's estate. He was last seen on Friday in this city in one of the barber shops, and was at the time under the influence of liquor. No one seems to know how he happened to be in this neighborhood. Mrs. Hill, residing near where he was found, says he stopped at her home a week ago, and asked for a drink of water, and at the time looked like a crazy man. From the condition of the body it was thought it had not been in the branch long, for it was still warm. Funeral services were held at his home yesterday morning, conducted by Elder Reynolds.

Cigar Man in Trouble.

Pete Murray, who a short time ago established a cigar factory here sold his plant Tuesday, and, it is alleged, attempted to skip the town. Murray and his wife boarded at the Hotel Fordham, where they owed a board bill of $52. Hearing of Murray's reported intentions and that he had gone to Lexington Landlord Dan Conners visited the cigar factory, where he found Mrs. Murray packing their belongings. Threatening her with arrest if she did not disclose her husband's whereabouts and remain at the hotel until his return, a telegram to the Lexington authorities caused Murray's arrest. He was brought to this city Wednesday morning, and, after settling his hotel bill Mr. Conners refused to prosecute and he was released from custody.

Eminently Becoming.

Thursday, June 14, is to be "Foster Day" at the "Home Coming of Kentuckians" in Louisville from June 13 to 17, in honor of Stephen Collins Foster, the author of "My Old Kentucky Home." It is the intention on that day to unveil a bronze statue of the author. Superintendent of Public Instruction, Jas. H. Fuqua, has notified County Superintendent McChesney that it has been decided it would be eminently becoming that this statue be paid for by the school children of Kentucky. And he was instructed to ask the teachers of Bourbon county to take up a collection of 75 cents in each school for this purpose. The collections are to be forwarded to Mr. McChesney.

Remains Brought Home.

The remains of Cornelius Hays, who was killed in a railroad accident at Herrin, Ill., several days ago, arrived here Wednesday and were taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. James Powers, on North Main street. The funeral services were held yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the Catholic church, the Rev. Father E. A. Burke officiating. Burial at the Paris Catholic cemetery. The pall-bearers were Ben Bishop, Luke Connelley, Wm. Gregory, Tom Maher, Jim Burke and Jas. Fee.

Prominent Men on Criminal Docket.

The criminal term of the Fayette Circuit Court began Tuesday. Among the important cases are the indictments against several Lexington business men charged with embezzlement in connection with the investment companies forced to the wall some years ago. Judge Parker set next Tuesday for the trials. Dr. A. P. Taylor will likely be tried again. Others to be tried are Rev. J. H. Baker, W. P. Richardson, C. H. Edge and W. C. Bush.

A Smash Up.

As Dick Butler and John Chipley were driving to town Wednesday their horse took fright at pistol shots that were being fired promiscuously on the highway, and ran away. Mr. Butler received a broken arm and Mr. Chipley was badly bruised up. This shooting on the public highway ought to be broken up.

A Good Bank.

By looking over the statements of the various banks we find that the statement of the Deposit Bank is something remarkable, especially to one that knows the history of this institution for years. Twelve years ago this bank was absolutely at the bottom of the list as to deposits, with its stock selling at $89 per share. From that time, it seems to have taken a new lease of life and has grown to be one of the substantial and leading banks of Central Kentucky. The Paris Deposit Bank has been for a number of years under the management of J. M. Hall, President, P. I. McCarthy, Cashier, W. E. Board and Clarence Thomas, Clerks, and to say that the affairs of this institution has been managed in a proper, conservative, safe and progressive manner is useless, for the statement speaks for itself. It is only sufficient for you to read the following figures, which speaks more than anything that we could say, viz: Deposits, $292,385.58; a surplus of $15,000, and its stock worth in open market $166.

Paynter Wins on First Ballot.

The result of the contest for United States Senator in this State was settled Tuesday night in the joint caucus at Frankfort by the election of Judge Thomas H. Paynter on the first ballot. The vote stood: Paynter, 59; Blackburn, 34; Haldeman, 10.

After the election had been made unanimous a committee was appointed to escort Judge Paynter before the caucus.

When he arrived Judge Paynter made a short speech thanking the members for the honor. He said he felt that either of the other candidates were more deserving than he, but that neither could appreciate the honor more than he. He said he took this opportunity to say that during all the campaign he never had any suspicion of the loyalty of any of his friends who were urging his election. This was taken to be an answer to those who have claimed that Gov. Beckham would become a candidate at the last minute and throw Paynter down.

Col. Haldeman and Senator Blackburn were invited to appear before the caucus and give their views.

Col. Haldeman came first and said Judge Paynter had well earned the tribute paid him, and that he wanted to earnestly thank that small band of friends who had so nobly stood by him. He pledged his personal efforts and those of the two newspapers he represented to bring about harmony and unity in the party.

Senator Blackburn said he was not wounded, was not sore, and defeat could not impair his party's loyalty. He said he had served a long time, but he could point with pride to the cleanliness of his long record, and he could lay down the trust confided to him with a clear conscience. He said the powers that be in the State Administration had made no war on him that he first made war on them, and that he was now paying the penalty, but that under the same circumstances he would do the same thing over again.

He said he waged the war to save the party from the incubus that threatens its destruction, but he made the war inside the party lines and would continue the fight inside the lines. He called attention to the elections in Missouri, Ohio and Pennsylvania, and said the Democrats in Kentucky should profit by their experience. He said he would always answer the call of his party, and the man that intimated that he would ever favor the Republicans was a fit associate for Ananias.

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

Time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Corresponding changes will be made at local stations and passengers intending to use these trains should consult ticket agents for complete information. C. H. HUNTERDORF, D. P. A.

AMUSEMENTS.

The old favorite DePew-Burdette Stock Company will be seen at the Grand Opera House next Monday night in the prodigious comedy melodramatic success, "A Woman's Sacrifice," the first time at 10, 20 and 30 cent prices. It is replete with dramatic incidents, delightful comedy, stirring situations, and the climaxes never fail to bring tremendous applause. The piece contains several excellent character types and affords all members of the company an opportunity of contributing to the pleasure of the audience. There are four acts and from first to last there is interest and amusement enough to entertain the most exacting critic. An added charm will be given this production by polite vaudeville interpolations by Thos. DePew, the versatile and inimitable comedian, dainty and winsome Augusta Bell, in gems of melody; Harry Hooper, in a budget of witticisms, and the peerless comedy duo, Corbett and Forrester, high class singing and sketch artists. There is nothing cheap about this attraction except the prices of admission, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Kentucky Senate Opened With an Anecdote.

When Lieut. Gov. Thorne entered the Senate chamber Tuesday morning he was warmly applauded by the senators, and from his desk he looked over a hedge of beautiful flowers—gifts from them. Addressing the Senate he expressed appreciation of the generous reception, and characteristically resorted to a story to illustrate. He accused U. S. Senator McCrory, who was present, of being the author of the anecdote.

"There was a beautiful Kentucky girl, who weighed 250 pounds," he began. "In the course of human events she became engaged to very worthy young man who weighed ninety-five pounds gross. It was the first time that Miss Largegirl had been engaged and she gave heed when some girl friends told her that she should sit on the knee of her fiancée when he next called. He came early, and she did what had been told her was correct. About eleven o'clock a look of concern overspreads her face, and she said: "Dear, aren't you tired?"

"No, Malinda," he answered. "I was tired about nine o'clock, but now, by Giminy, I am paralyzed."

"I was moved when you greeted me outside," continued Lieut. Gov. Thorne, "but at this evidence of your friendship I am plumb paralyzed."

He Kept the Appointment.

Thomas B. Reed once telegraphed a man to meet him in Pittsburgh, and the recipient, the Detroit Free Press says wishing to escape an unpleasant interview, took advantage of interrupted communication due to heavy rains and replied:

"Sorry I can not go to Pittsburgh. Washout on line."

"Don't mind a little thing like that. Buy a new shirt and come on," was Reed's reply.

The man kept the appointment.

Many physical diseases are due to disease or prostration, and are alike to be treated with pills and only specific remedies. The cause of disease is often unknown, but thereby the symptom is cured. Dr. P. is a scientist and an experimenter, and it is perfect condition.

As a writer who has written many books and articles on nervous diseases, Dr. P. believes that the best treatment is a diet of fresh air, exercise, and rest.

Dr. P. is a

Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse, by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For over-worked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

Latest Fad In London.

A special cable from London states that the man wishing to ingratiate himself with any lady of his acquaintance should send her a box of cigars as a present. This is the latest fad of society. The cigar manufacturers are putting up for their purpose dainty boxes of Havanas, because it is asserted, the modern woman prefers a weed that tastes.

In women's clubs and women's homes the after-lunch and after-dinner cigar finds many devotees. The cigarette is, in fact, merely the plaything of the debutante, who aims at being up-to-date and smart.

Although one or two women's clubs with strong-minded committees have totally extinguished the feminine smoker, the great majority encourage her.

The Lyceum, New Century, Empress, Sesame and Pioneer clubs provide cosy smoking rooms for their fair members. In cushioned corners or hidden in the padded depths of enormous arm chairs their members enjoy their alleged cigars and cigarettes.

If this is true it will not be long before our American ladies will follow suit, for they all like to be English, you know.

Great Game.

A very small boy was trying to lead a big St. Bernard up the road.

"What are you going to do with the dog, my little man?" inquired a passerby.

"I'm going to see where he wants to go first!" was the breathless reply

The Host Was Pleased.

"Edward Everett Hale," said a lawyer, "was one of the guests at a millionaire's dinner."

"The millionaire was a free spender, but he wanted full credit for every dollar put out."

"And, as the dinner progressed, he told his guests what the more expensive dishes had cost."

"This terrapin," he would say, "was shipped direct from Baltimore. A Baltimore cook came on to prepare it. The dish actually cost a dollar a teaspooonful."

"So he talked of the fresh peas, the hot-house asparagus, the Covent Garden peaches and the other courses. He dwelt especially on the expense of the large and beautiful grapes, each bunch a foot long, each grape bigger than a plum. He told, down to a penny, what he had figured it out that the grapes had cost him apiece."

"The guests looked annoyed. They are the expensive grapes charily. But Dr. Hale, smiling, extended his plate and said:

"Would you mind cutting me off about a dollar and eighty-seven cents' worth more, please?"

Remarkable Parallel in Lives of Two Senators.

"The relation which I bear to Senator Blackburn is, I am sure, without a parallel," said Senator McCreary. "We were together at Centre College and graduated in the same class. We joined the Confederate army at the same time, and fought through the war. Then each of us studied law. I was elected to the Legislature and a year later Senator Blackburn also was elected a member of the House. He placed my name in nomination for Speaker and I won. The next term he again nominated me and I was elected. Then he was elected to Congress and I was elected Governor of Kentucky. My next election was to Congress, and Blackburn and I were again shoulder to shoulder. He was again elected United States Senator and again I followed him, and we have served together and been closely associated there. When I came to Frankfort I did not know that I could be of the slightest benefit to him in this contest, but no one will say that I did wrong in coming."

Senator McCreary announced that he would positively be a candidate to succeed himself two years hence.

An Airy Trip.

Walter Wellman, the well-known correspondent, has been commissioned by a Chicago newspaper to search for the North Pole in an airship. The idea is to start the expedition from Spitzbergen, Norway, and to make the round trip in two weeks.

Reduced Rates on L. & N. Between Paris and Lexington.

Since the recently inaugurated hour service over the Louisville & Nashville railroad between Lexington and Paris, the fare has been reduced to 40 cents for one way and 75 cents for the round trip.

This tends to place the steam railway in direct competition with the electric lines and means a little cheaper fare between the places on the round trip than has previously existed.

Hearst to Have a Cincinnati Paper.

Rumors that William R. Hearst has decided to have a newspaper in Cincinnati have been frequent, but it is now understood that the plan is to be consummated. It is understood that Hearst has been trying to buy the Enquirer and notified John B. McLean that if he did not have a favorable answer by midnight on Dec. 31, he would at once proceed to start a paper there with both morning and evening editions.

Mr. McLean, who is in Washington, denies that he will sell the Enquirer, which is the apple of his eye. It is understood that the new paper will be Democratic and will aim to swing Ohio into line for Hearst for President in 1908. The belief is that it will be established at once. Mr. Hearst has had the special wires of the Hearst News Service taken out of the Enquirer office.

Howard Still Has Hopes.

The Supreme Court of the United States Tuesday affirmed the decision of the Kentucky Court of Appeals in the case of James B. Howard vs. the State of Kentucky.

Howard was tried three times in the Circuit Court of Franklin county on the charge of murdering Governor William Goebel on January 30, 1900, and convicted each time. He is now under sentence of life imprisonment. Howard now has hopes of being pardoned by President Roosevelt. He says as the case is now in the U. S. Court the President can take a hand.

We are going to do battle for the masses and not classes. Thirty Days we want to make this the greatest Cash Gathering Carnival that ever appeared in the history of the country, for with us it is cold cash we want, and we must have it quick. All former attempts at merchandising by us or any other concern, within 50 miles of this city, will be eclipsed beyond all question. The city will be in a stir as never before. A hustle and a bustle throughout the entire big store that will wake mortal man from his slumbers and make competition howl until you can hear them for blocks around. It will be a wonderful gathering of the people. We want Cash and we are going to give the people the benefit. We will raise the roof if necessary. It will be a hot time in the old time now.

We are going to pour shot and shell into the enemy's camp, until they will think they are once more storming Port Arthur. There will be can nonading all along the line, for with us it is cut loose and unload now, not later. Our loss will be the people's gain and we expect them for Fifty Miles around to turn out to this harvest for all the people and not the favored few. There never was such an undertaking in this city, and we do not believe there ever will be again. Absolutely $1 here will do the work of $1.50 to $2 elsewhere, on many lines, and Next Saturday Morning, January 6, when these doors open, you will see such a gathering of people as never appeared on the streets of this city before.

From one end of the big store to the other you will find the fluttering of red tickets with the price of destruction marked on them and staring you in the face, no matter which door you come in.

THE WHOLE SHOOTING MATCH GOES TO THE PUBLIC.—We want to do ten times the business of our lives, because we want Cash. We expect multitudes standing in line and your share will be for you. We have put on extra sales people, and no matter whether the sun shines or whether it is raining, it will pay you to gather up your gum coats, mackintoshes and umbrella, and come down and see the greatest display of merchandise sold for the least money that ever appeared to your eyes, or any other person's eyes, since you were born.
